

Anti-Slavery Office
Monday

Dear Wendell

You will charge Mrs Chapman if you will carry to her these two books. They are a Bible and Prayer-book containing as a frontis-piece,
Christ the Consoler with the negro left-out. As you will of course infer, these books are for the Southern trade. The Publisher - Lippincott &

6. - or the largest business in the book way in the city - or as large a business at least as any other house.

Please deliver these books to Mrs T. if not too much trouble
- I shall be very pleased before you go Truly yours
Wm McKim

The lithographer alluded to is Mr Edmunds of Dublin, of whom you have done well.
Please send it in the way of reaching him by the first opportunity. I should like to know whether I am right in supposing that you will send a copy of that Bible or Prayer book to Mr Schaeffer.
I know the publisher, Lehmann, well personally. When I bought the books (which I have sent you) I told his book-keeper what I meant to do with them. - I also know personally the artist who engraved the picture; and the man who furnished the <sup>plate</sup> engraving from which the picture was copied; and I have in my possession the identical engraving. At least the picture dealer tells me that he believes it is the key used by ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> artist who improves in making his copy. To see see you have been common have in the hands in which you desired information.
